Our Honor Guard took part in 3 special Masses this past year at St. Rose of Lima Church in Littleton, NH - (1) Confirmation Mass with Bishop Libasci, (2) Feast of Corpus Christi Mass and Procession, (3) Installation Mass for newly assigned as pastor, Fr. Ryan Amazeen

Last April, the assembly gathered at a restaurant in Franconia, NH with their wives. Dress for the Sir Knights was K of C uniform, or business suit. The assembly paid for the wives, widows, clergy, and special guests. We had a total of 38 in attendance.

The Color Corp and Honor Guard marched in the Littleton Memorial Day Parade two years ago for the first time. The parade was cancelled this past May due to issues that occurred in the planning stages (lack of volunteerism). Our assembly is getting involved in helping to coordinate the parade for May 2025 to make sure that the parade happens. We are volunteering to help with the planning.
